

or Lindsey Lohan?

Or why do we always insist that the fault in some way lies with the mother when a child that were going on in her own home.

However, this didn't stop Josef Fritzl's defence trying to put up with you," she'd grin.

I don't know why, either, but I'm very glad she still does. Happy Mother's Day.

utton for the Dragons

Taking on a partner was definitely the best move for me. It's given me confidence in my abilities and it's fantastic having someone on the end of a phone that I can call for advice.

I can just imagine in the years to come, a doting mother giving a unique piece of jewellery, made of buttons symbolising memories, to a loving daughter.

I can't believe that what started out as an idea in my head, via Dragons' Den, will become a treasured gift for others.
